

The Rachel Carson Healthy Planet Award will be awarded to one deserving student nominated from each high school and community college across the United States who embodies the spirit of Rachel Carson in his or her dedication to sustainability and community development.

RACHEL CARSON HEALTHY PLANET AWARD

Winners of the Rachel Carson Healthy Planet Award receive:

A special edition of Silent Spring—Rachel Carson's groundbreaking 1962 book that helped launch the modern environmental movement

A $5,000 merit scholarship (renewable annually) to Chatham University*

A Certificate of Achievement to commemorate your commitment and bolster your resume

An invitation and discounted price to Chatham's SUSTAINABLE LEADERSHIP ACADEMY (SLA) running July 30-August 5, 2017. The SLA features speakers, hands-on activities, networking and tours of Pittsburgh's sustainable highlights, including Chatham's net-zero Eden Hall Campus, the world's first academic community built from the ground up for the study of sustainability. (Need-based scholarships available.)

Rachel Carson Healthy Planet Award nominations for first-year and transfer students are due by April 1, 2017.

For more information about the award and how to nominate a student, visit chatham.edu/rachel-carson-award

RACHEL CARSON SCHOLARSHIP

All Rachel Carson Healthy Planet Award recipients receive preferred consideration for the Rachel Carson Scholarship, a FULL-TUITION SCHOLARSHIP to attend Chatham University. The scholarship is awarded each year to one new first-year student and one new transfer student from a community college. Applicants must meet all scholarship requirements and be accepted to Chatham in order to qualify for a scholarship interview. The Rachel Carson Scholarship application deadline is April 1, 2017 for transfer students (fall 2017 college entrance) and by November 1, 2017 for first year students (fall 2018 college entrance). For more information and to apply, visit chatham.edu/scholarships.

ABOUT CHATHAM

Located in Pittsburgh, PA, a vibrant town of 70,000 college students, Chatham excels in sustainability, health and lab sciences, business and communication, and arts and humanities.

Chatham is the alma mater of environmental icon and author, Rachel Carson '29, and is a recognized leader in sustainability and environmental education, having been ranked in the top five internationally for sustainability achievements in the Sustainability Tracking, Assessment & Rating System™ (STARS) and named a Top 22 Green College by the Princeton Review. Chatham is home to the Falk School of Sustainability & Environment and the net-zero, Eden Hall Campus.